

The NYPD's fear of a revolutionary movement grows each day the George Floyd Uprisings continue to flood the streets with solidarity. They want to prevent us from protecting our own by arresting and detaining folks providing much needed jail and court support to arrestees. This document aims to provide basic resources to help keep support folks and their friends safe. Note: Mayor de Blasio announced the curfew was lifted on June 7th, but on the occasion that cops still attempt to restrict jail support efforts, these resources can help. If you'd like to contribute to this document, please call MACC Legal at (646) 918-1207.

If you (or a friend) are harassed or threatened with arrest by police for doing jail support after current or former curfew hours OR not being an essential worker, cite Mayor's previous executive order defining essential workers (issued June 2, 2020) and call Eli at The Bronx Defenders, (240) 997-1117. If harassed at 100 Centre or 1 Police Plaza, you can also contact State Senator Kavanaugh's office at (917) 524-9382. Senator Kavanaugh has agreed to "serve as a resource to those improperly arrested" doing jail support at 1PP or 100 Centre Street.

IF BAIL IS SET contact the bail fund at: (929) 356-5920 and TEXT them the following information:

- Name of defendant
- Date of Birth
- Docket number
- Defense attorney name
- Set bail amount

You are encouraged to share bail fund contact information with family members and loved ones of arrestee so that they can also use this as a resource.
